

Code of Ethics

For Tarot Card Readings

The Minimum Standards as prescribed by the ATBC

These are the representations of the minimum standards expected by the American Board for Tarot Certification from all its certified readers, committee members, and Board members. All individual Tarot card readers are also expected to develop their own Code of Ethics while including these minimum points.

The Code

- A Tarot card reading is meant to be a positive, supportive experience
- A Tarot card reading looks at the energies that are currently surrounding the client and at the various possible outcomes if action is not taken
- All clients shall receive total confidentiality
- The client will be advised to seek advice from professionals on financial, psychological, medical or legal matters
- The client will be encouraged to make their own decisions
- The client's religious belief and spiritual path are respected
- The intention of the Tarot reading is that it will be for the highest good of the client. The client will receive the reader's full attention and will be encouraged to participate in the reading process
- The Tarot reader shall not ask the client to make any additional purchase of any kind
- The Tarot reader has the right to choose not to read for a prospective client if he / she is not comfortable doing so

My Personal Ethics

- I believe that ones 'future' can be changed positively by the proactive action taken by an individual
- I do not tackle readings surrounding the issues of Physical Death, Black Magic, Spells etc.
- Since no intuitive process is 100% accurate, I shall not claim the same
- I conduct my readings only before sunset
